According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), more than half of new cervical cancer cases occur among women who have never been screened or are not up-to-date with screening. So don’t delay—make sure you get screened regularly. Talk to your healthcare provider about screening.

Learn more about screening at www.nccc-online.org